AUTHORITIES FEAR OUTBREAK MAY OCCUR AT ANY MOMENT

Instruction' Given to Close All Shops and Houses---Liberal Circles Panic Striken---Revolutionary Spirit Spreading in Russia and There is Talk of Overthrowing Romanoff Dynasity.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 26.—The police today have given instruction that all shops and houses must be closed. This is regarded as a bad sign as it indicates that the authoritie fear an outbreak is likely to occur any moment.

Liberal circles are panic stricken at the slowness with which the government is proceeding in the crisis facing the country as they believe that the deliberation being shown by those in authority is dragging the country into apalling disasters. The revolutionary spirit is spreading and talk of overthrowing the Romanoff dynasty is openly indulged in. Numerous meetings have been held at which resolutions have been adopted unanimously declaring for the establishment of a Democratic republic in Russia and/for armed resistance to the aggression of private property interests.

Anarchistic agitators are rapidly gaining an influence over the minds of schoolboys and teaching their ideas to the students.

Tramway service has been interferred with today by the strikers and their sympathizers. The authorities remain inactive.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 26.—Serious trouble is feared from the strike situation, although there has yet been no hostile demonstration against the government. The strike is growing, but the workingmen are taking care not to force the government to the point of turning troops upon them. The real danger which may develop into a revolutionary movement is the scarcity of food here and in other large cities of the empire. This may cause the strike to become desperate in the face of starvation. There is a growing belief that while the threatened revolution is a possibility, a compromise will be reached before the situation becomes so acute as to lead to great trouble. The strike is almost general in southern Russia. Reports from over the empire show that workers of all crafts are joining the striking railway men. The prices of food stuffs are advancing, and liberal circles are panic stricken. Numerous meetings have been held at which resolutions were adopted unanimously declaring for the establishment of a democratic republic and for armed resistance to the aggression of private property interests.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 26.—Fifteen persons were killed and 26 injured in a conflict between troops and strikers at the Briansk works, near the city of Ekaterinoslav, where the strikers had erected wire entanglements. The courts, banks and other public offices have been closed. It is reported that the strikers have taken possession of a train which was approaching Ekaterinoslav and have destroyed the station buildings along the line.

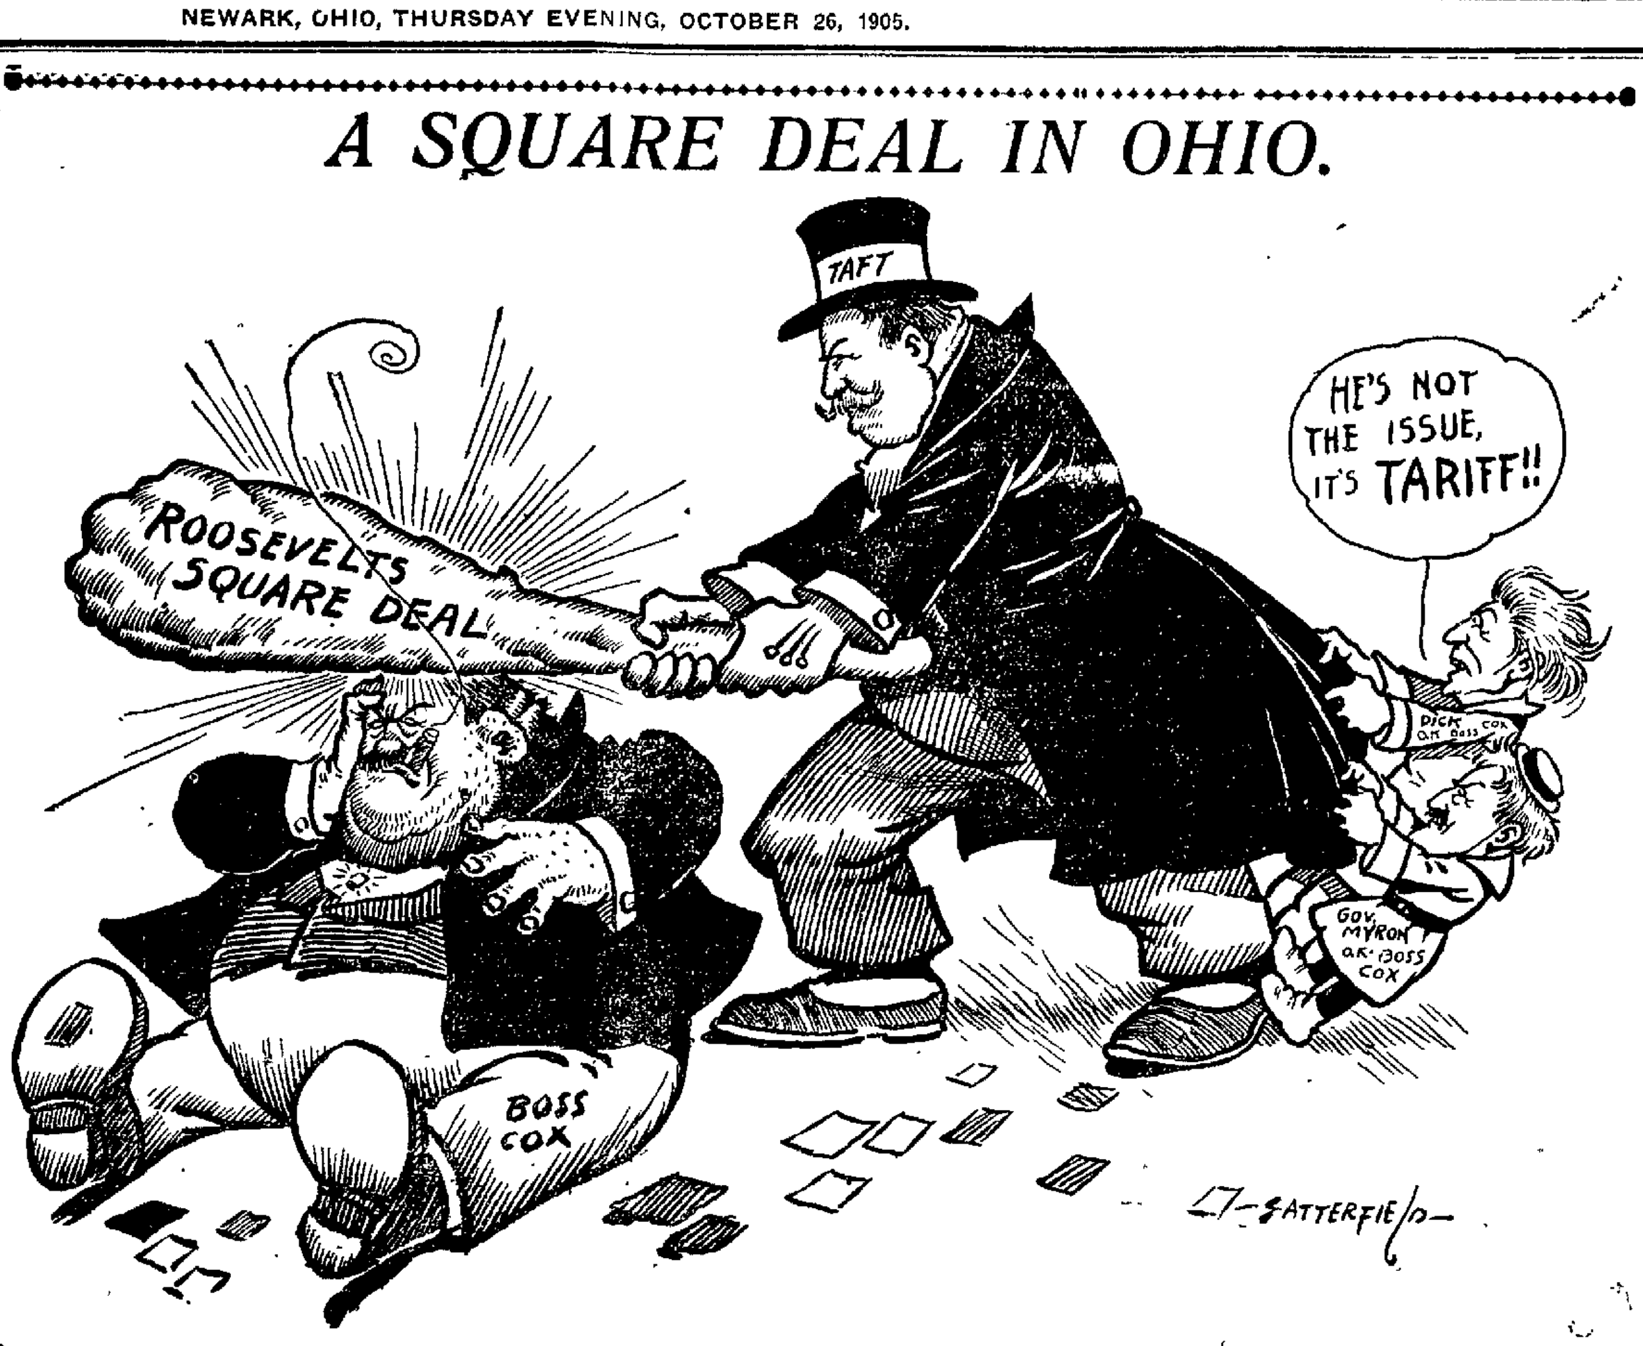

An encounter took place here between strikers and engine drivers who were preparing to take out trains. Revolver shots were exchanged and a number of persons were killed or wounded.

A situation more crucial than any since the beginning of the political and social upheaval of Russia, and which shows no signs of amelioration, confronts the ministers, who under the leadership of Count Witte spent many hours in conferences in the hope of finding some way out of the crisis into which the revolutionists and the Socialists have cast the country. The general strike on the railroads is complete except in a few border provinces, and St. Petersburg, Moscow and other large cities are almost as closely beleaguered as if they were invested by besieging armies. At the same time the industrial strike has assumed large dimensions, and the turbulent elements in several localities are offering open resistance to the troops.

Large meetings, mainly of workmen, were held in the university and the higher schools, at which the sentiment was unanimous for continuing the strike on the railroads to the bitter end. The proceedings at several of the meetings were of a strongly revolutionary character, the orators calling on their auditors to rise and slay all "Chinovniks" and the police and to meet the troops with armed force.

The Finland railroad to Helsingfors and the steamers constitute St. Petersburg's only means of communication with the outer world. The postoffice authorities are now refusing to accept ordinary mail. The strike is complete in the great factory region on both banks of the Neva above the city and in several other industrial quarters. Forty thousand men are out, but they are conducting themselves in a most orderly manner. The store clerks' union proclaimed a two weeks' sympathy strike for political reasons, but it is probable that it will be only partially obeyed. Prudent inhabitants are laying in stocks of provisions so as to prepare for emergencies. As a consequence the prices of provisions have risen sharply.

INSURANCE

Investigation is Put Off Until After Election in November

COMMITTEE NAMED BY TRUSTEES TO LOOK INTO AFFAIRS

Receipts of Equitable Falling Off—McClintock Gives Technical Details.

New York, Oct. 26.—The legislative insurance committee has adjourned until Nov. 8, the day after the municipal elections, in order to enable the members of the committee who are candidates for e-election to the assembly to meet their constituents and conduct their campaigns.

Actuary Emory McClintock of the Mutual Life was again called to the stand, and column after column of figures were read. Mr. McClintock said he was very strongly in favor of limiting the amount of business a company should write. He said an attempt had been made to come to an agreement with the New York Life and the Equitable to limit the amount of business done by each company to $1,000,000,000. This was finally increased to $1,500,000,000, but James H. Hyde of the Equitable first declined to enter the agreement, and then George W. Perkins of the New York Life objected. Mr. Hyde's reason was his ambition to make the Equitable the largest insurance company in the world. Mr. McClintock thought that a law limiting the amount of business would be a good thing, and felt sure the Mutual Life would lend its support to such legislation. These views are contrary to those expressed by President McCurdy of the Mutual when he was on the stand. Mr. McCurdy did not think that any company's business should be limited even at the point when that business fa ed to be profitable to the company.

President Richard A. McCurdy of the Mutual announced that a committee of the board of trustees of his company had been appointed to investigate the company and its methods. The members of the committee are: William H. Truesdale, Effingham B. Morris and John W. Auchincloss, all prominent in the financial and business world. This action was taken at a meeting of the board and was the result of the insurance investigation. The matter was brought before the board by President McCurdy, and the committee will begin its work at once.

Still another interesting development in insurance matters was the statement issued by President Morton of the Equitable Life showing that the receipts of that company for the nine months of the year exceeded the expenditures by $16,723.197, an increase of over $500.000 compared with the same period last year. Receipts from premiums on policies for the third quarter of this year were over $1,000,000 less than 1904. The expenses of the third quarter of this year were $839.913 less than last year, but for the first six months there was an increase over last year of $24.943.

JOHN S. JONES, GRANVILLE CAPITALIST LOSES SUIT AGAINST GOULD AND RAMSEY IN U. S. COURT OF APPEALS THURSDAY

Cincinnati, Oct. 26—George Gould and Jos. Ramsey, Jr., won their contention in the Little Kanawha syndicate in the case in the United States Court of Appeals today, John S. Jones of Granville, brought suit to stop the sale of the Little Kanawha property and to have a receiver appointed. Judge Richards rendered a decision today sustaining the motion to quash the proceeding, thus deciding against Mr Jones.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 26—Which railroad corporation or great moneyed interest has gotten into the center of the Virginia coal fields through the Little Kanawha syndicate, is one of the questions pending before Judge John K. Richards, sitting as a circuit judge of appeals. The fight for that great railroad and coal mining property has commenced here in court. Over $8,000,000 are involved in the contest. George J. Gould and Joseph Ramsey Jr., recent rivals for control of the Wabash system appear as defendants. but each has his separate counsel.

The plaintiff is John S. Jones, of Granville, Ohio, who subscribed $300,000 to the syndicate, who asks for the appointment of a receiver for the property. The coal holdings of this syndicate include 50,000 acres near Fairmont and 35,000 acres in Gilmer, Braxton and Lewis counties. The lines of railroad immediately concerned are the Little Kanawha, the Parkersburg Bridge and Terminal company, which was to bridge the Ohio at that city; the Burnsville and Eastern, the Buckhannon and Northern, the Belington and Northern, the Zanesville, Marietta and Parkersburg and the Marietta, Columbus and Cleveland. The plaintiff alleges that the plan was to make a continuous line of railroad of these integrals to supply outside markets from their coal holdings.

Mr. Jones, who is living at Granville, but whose business residence is Chicago, alleges further that Mr. Ramsey has built the Green county railroad in which Mr. Gould did not join, but which Mr. Ramsey is endeavoring to sell at a price harrassing to the other properties of this company, the whole combination being lumped.

Mr. Gould's subscription to the scheme was $3,0000,000; Mr. Ramsey's $300,000: and other defendants: W. E. Guy $3,00.000; J. T. Blair $100,000, and E. D. Fulton, $100,000. Plaintiff states he does not know other syndicate subscriptions. but does believe 70 per cent. thereof has not been subscribed.

AUTOMOBILIST GIVEN STIFF SENTENCE

Paris, Oct. 26.—American automobilist Elliott F. Sheppard, grandson of the late William H. Vanderbilt, who was tried last week on a charge of manslaughter for causing the death on August 28 of a 12-year-old girl, who was run down by his automobile while traveling at a high rate of speed, was found guilty in a verdict rendered today. Sheppard was condemned to three months' imprisonment without respite and ordered to pay a fine of 600 francs and costs. while an award of 20,000 francs damages was made in favor of the girl's parents. This sum he must pay cojointly with the automobile company by which he was employed. The verdict is exceptionally severe. The judge declares it was necessary to make an example to check the carelessness of chaffeurs and their disregard for human life.

On the steamship Comus the President and 400 citizens went for a trip on the river. A light buffet luncheon was served, and later the parade started through the principal streets of the city. Along the line of march were several houses infected with yellow fever. but the infection did not worry the President He is considered immune as he was in the midst of yellow fever during the Cuban campaign.

He refused. however, to deny there might be some basis for the report and laughingly turned the topic of conversation.

Raffles, The Amateur Cracksman

By E. W. HORNUNG

A JUBILEE PRESENT

No. 8 of the Series

(Copyright, 1901, by Charles Scribner's Sons.)

THE room of gold in the British museum is probably well enough known to the inquiring alien and the traveled American. A true Londoner, however, I myself had never heard of it until Raffles casually proposed a raid.

"The older I grow, Bunny, the less I think of your so called precious stones. When did they ever bring in half their market value in pounds, shillings and pence? There was the first little crib we ever cracked together—you with your innocent eyes shut. A thousand pounds that stuff was worth, but how many hundreds did it actually fetch? The Ardagh emeralds weren't much better, old Lady M'rose's necklace was far worse, but that little lot the other night has about finished me. A cool hundred for goods priced well over four and £35 to come off for bait, since we only got a tenner for the ring I bought and paid for, like an ass. I'll be shot if I ever touch a diamond again—not if it was the Kohinoor! Those few whacking stones are too well known, and to cut them up is to decrease their value by arithmetical retrogression. Besides, that brings you up against the fence once more, and I'm done with the beggars for good and all. You talk about your editors and publishers, you literary swine! Barabbas was neither a robber nor a publisher, but a six barreled, barbed wire, spike topped fence. What we really want is an incorporated society of thieves, with some public spirited old forger to run it for us on business lines."

Raffles uttered these blasphemies under his breath, not, I am afraid, out of any respect for my one redeeming profession, but because we were taking a midnight airing on the roof after a whole day of June in the little flat below. The stars shone overhead, the lights of London underneath, and between the lips of Raffles a cigarette of the old and only brand. I had sent in secret for a box of the best. The boon had arrived that night, and the foregoing speech was the first result. I could afford to ignore the insolent asides, however, where the apparent contention was so manifestly unsound.

"And how are you going to get rid of your gold?" said I pertinently.

"Nothing easier, my dear rabbit."

"Is your room of gold a roomful of sovereigns?"

Raffles laughed softly at my scorn.

"No, Bunny; it's principally in the shape of archaic ornaments, whose value, I admit, is largely extrinsic. But gold is gold from Phoenicia to Klondike, and if we cleared the room we should eventually do very well."

"How?"

"I should melt it down into a nugget and bring it home from the U. S. A. tomorrow."

"And then?"

"Make them pay up in hard cash across the counter of the Bank of England. And you can make them."

That I knew, so I said nothing for a time, remaining a hostile though silent critic while we paced the cool black leads with our bare feet softly as cats.

"And how do you propose to get enough away," at length I asked, "to make it worth while?"

"Ah, there you have it," said Raffles. "I only propose to reconnoiter the ground to see what we can see. We might find some hiding place for a night. That, I am afraid, would be our only chance."

"Have you ever been there before?"

"Not since they got the one good portable piece which I believe they exhibit now. It's a long time since I read of it—I can't remember where—but I know they have got a gold cup of sorts worth several thousands. A number of the immorally rich clubbed together and presented it to the nation, and two of the richly immoral intend to snaffle it for themselves. At any rate, we might go and have a look at it, Bunny, don't you think?"

Think! I seized his arm.

"When? When? When?" I asked, like a quick firing gun.

"The sooner the better while old Theobald's away on his honeymoon."

Our medico had married the week before, nor was any fellow practitioner taking his work, at least not that considerable branch of it which consisted of Raffles, during his brief absence from town. There were reasons, delightfully obvious to us, why such a plan would have been highly unwise in Dr. Theobald. I, however, was sending him daily screeds and both matutinal and nocturnal telegrams, the composition of which afforded Raffles not a little enjoyment.

"Well, then, when when?" I began to repeat.

"Tomorrow, if you like."

"Only to look?"

The limitation was my one regret.

"We must do so, Bunny, before we leap."

"Very well," I sighed. "But tomorrow it is!"

And the morrow it really was.

I saw the porter that night and, I still think, bought his absolute allegiance for the second coin of the realm. My story, however, invented by Raffles, was sufficiently specious in itself. That sick gentleman, Mr. Maturin (as I had to remember to call him), was really or apparently sickening for fresh air. Dr. Theobald would allow him none. He was pestering me for just one day in the country while the glorious weather lasted. I was myself convinced that no possible harm could come of the experiment. Would the porter help me in so innocent and meritorious an intrigue? The man hesitated. I produced my half sovereign. The man was lost. And at half past 8 next morning, before the heat of the day, Raffles and I drove to Kew gardens in a hired landau, which was to call for us at midday and wait until we came. The porter had assisted me to carry my invalid downstairs in a carrying chair hired (like the landau) from Harrod's stores for the occasion.

It was little after 9 when we crawled together into the gardens. By half past my invalid had had enough, and put he tottered on my arm. A cab, a message to our coachman, a timely train to Baker street, another cab, and we were at the British museum—brisk pedestrians now—not very many minutes after the opening hour of 10 a. m.

The museum pigeons were crooning among the shadows of the grimy colonnade, and the stalwart janitors looked less stalwart than usual, as though their medals were too heavy for them. I recognized some habitual readers going to their labor underneath the dome. Of mere visitors we seemed among the first.

"That's the room," said Raffles, who had bought the twopenny guide, as we studied it openly on the nearest bench—"No. 43, upstairs and sharp around to the right. Come on, Bunny!"

And he led the way in silence, but with a long methodical stride which I could not understand until we came to the corridor leading to the room of gold, when he turned to me for a moment.

"A hundred and thirty-nine yards from this to the open street," said Raffles, "not counting the stairs. I suppose we could do it in twenty seconds, but if we did we should have to jump the gates. No, you must remember to loaf out at slow march, Bunny, whether you like it or not."

"But you talked about a hiding place for a night."

"Quite so—for all right. We should have to get back, go on lying low and saunter out with the crowd next day—after doing the whole show thoroughly."

"What! With gold in our pockets!"—

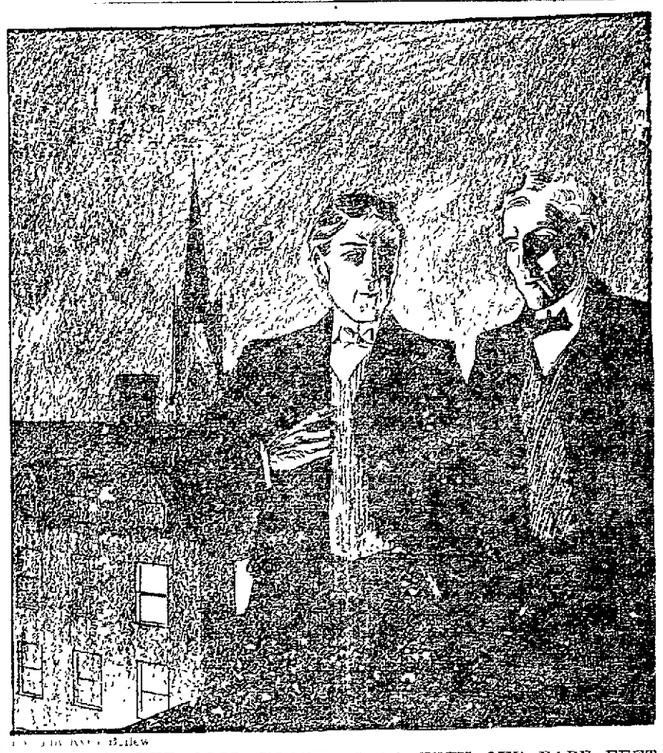

"And gold in our boots and gold up the sleeves and legs of our suits! You leave that to me, Bunny."

It is none of my business to describe the so called room of gold, with which I, for one, was not a little disappointed. The glass cases which both fill and line it no doubt contain unique examples of the goldsmith's art in times and places of which one heard quite enough in the course of one's classical education, but from a professional point of view I would as lief have the ransacking of a single window in the west end as the pick of all those spoils of Etruria and of ancient Greece. The gold may not be so soft as it appears, but it certainly looks as though a set could be cut off the business ends of the spoons and stop your own tooth in doing so. Nor should I care to be seen wearing one of the rings. But the greatest fraud of all from the aforesaid standpoint is as unduly that very cup of which Raffles had spoken. Moreover, he felt this himself.

"Why, it's as thin as paper," said he, "and crumpled like a middle aged lady of quality! But, by Jove, it's one of the most beautiful things I ever saw in my life, Bunny. I should like to have it for its own sake, by all my gods!"

The thing had a little square case of plate glass all to itself at one end of the room. It may have been the thing of beauty that Raffles affected to consider it, but I, for my part, was in no mood to look at it in that light. Underneath were the names of the plutocrats who had subscribed for this national gewgaw, and I fell to wondering where their £8,000 came in, while Raffles devoured his twopenny guidebook.

"Those are scenes from the martyrdom of St. Agnes," said he, "translucent on relief. One of the finest specimens of its kind.' I should think it was! Bunny, you Philistine, why can't you admire the thing for its own sake? It would be worth having to live up to! There never was such rich crameling on such thin gold, and what a good scheme to bang the lid up over it, so that you can see how thin it is. I wonder if we could lift it, Bunny, by hook or crook?"

WE PACED THE COOL BLACK LEADS WITH OUR BARE FEET.

"You'd better try, sir," said a dry voice at his elbow.

The madman seemed to think we had the room to ourselves. I knew better, but, like another madman, had let him ramble on unchecked. And there was a stolid constable confronting us in the short tunic that they wear in summer, his whistle on its chain, but no truncheon at his side. Heavens, how I see him now—a man of medium size, with a broad, good humored, perspiring face and a limp mustache. He looked sternly at Raffles, and Raffles looked merrily at him.

"Going to run me in, officer?" said he. "That would be a joke—my hat!"

SHE DREW

A Widow's Pension For Twenty-Four Years. Then the Ohio Woman Found Her Husband.

Denver, Colo., Oct. 26—After drawing a widow's pension for a quarter of a century, Mrs Mary Hayward, of Sandusky, Ohio, has discovered her husband, who deserted her shortly after their marriage, 28 years ago. Through Thomas G. Randall, special pension examiner for this district, the couple were brought together.

The deserted wife forgave all and offered to take her aged and penniless husband back to her little home in Sandusky, but he refused and went back to his work of prospecting, hoping to find a fortune, while the woman returned to Sandusky.

Hayward says he left his wife because of his inability to support her, and he has always dreamed of the day when a rich strike would make it possible for him to resume marital obligations.

THE FIELD OF SPORT

BLUE AND ELSTON WERE DRAFTED

BY THE COLUMBUS A. A. TEAM AND MANAGER DRUMM GETS $1000.

Curt Elston's Heavy Swats Look Good to the Managers of the Senators. Blue's Good Arm Wins.

Fred Drumm, the foxy manager of the Zanesville team, will lose two of his stars next season and their places will be hard to fill.

The Columbus team of the American association has drafted Catcher Bert Blue and Pitcher Charles "Curt" Elston. Manager Drumm will receive $1,000 for the two players.

Catcher Blue has been a member of the Zanesville team for only one year, Drumm getting him from Findlay. Elston on the other hand, has been with the Zanesville team for the last three years. Both are excellent ball players and the belief is they should make good in the association.

As a hitter Pitcher Elston was second to none and many a game was broken up this summer by one of his long drives. Were he a little better fielder he wouldn't have to care a thing about his pitching ability, as his swatting would make him a valuable man. Elston, however, is quite a clever left-hander. Blue on the other hand is a very fair hitter and a finished catcher, his throwing being one of his best points. Drumm will miss both of these men when the summer rolls around.

PROTECTIVES MEET

To Select Officers For Next Year and to Settle Up Busines of the Association.

The members of the Ohio and Pennsylvania league will meet at Akron today. The session will be held in the parlor of the Empire House and some interesting developments in a baseball way are looked for.

President Morton has issued a call to all the teams requesting them to send representatives to the meeting and has urged all the members of the executive committee to be present and participate in the morning session at which they will be supposed to make a report. The executive committee consists of W. E. Gray of Lancaster, Marty Hogan of Youngstown, Edward Risher of Homestead and Fred Drumm of Zanesville. The out of town papers take but little stock in the proposed jump of Hogan's men to the Tri-State as they believe he is for organized ball first and last.

President Morton will preside at the meeting. Mr. Morton is a candidate for re-election and as he has no opposition up to date there is every reason to believe he will secure the office.

FOR DENISON

Old Kenyon is Preparing and Baptists Will Meet a Well Trained Football Eleven.

Gambier, O., Oct. 26—There was a long practice on Benson field yesterday afternoon. Almost all of the football squad were out in suits ready for work, and they got plenty of it, too. The men are rapidly getting over the effects of last Saturday's game and will be in excellent condition when they meet the Denison eleven here on next Saturday.

Although the eligibility of several of the Denison players has been questioned by the colleges in the "Big Six" still sufficient proof has not yet been brought forward to rule out all of the players whose amateur record was questioned, so the dispute has been dropped.

Coach Greggory was not thoroughly satisfied with the Case game, for he felt that his team could have put up a better game against the science men.

In the practice yesterday afternoon the coach drilled the men on several new formations and then gave them about 15 minutes' hard scrimmage, in which they practiced these new plays.

FINE SCHEDULE

Will Be Offered by Denison Track Team For the Coming Season of 1906.

Manager E. C. DeClerque of Denison's track team is receiving letters daily from various colleges over the country regarding meets with the track team at Granville. Notre Dame's manager writes that he thought it a little early to schedule a meet at this time, but assured Manager De Clerque that he would consider the letter and could promise him a date.

The Denison track team established a reputation last year, in spite of the fact that several of the meets were called off on account of rain. It is the intention of this year's manager to fix that reputation firmly and then it will be a hard trouble to keep the Baptist educational institution at Granville continually before the athletic people in this part of the country.

The only inducement which will be offered the track men to enter Denison is a first class schedule in which every member of the team will have an opportunity to distinguish himself.

FAST TEAM

Will be Sent to Coshocton by Newark A. A. Saturday—Good Practice Last Night.

Captain Roll Smith is succeeding well in getting the Newark A. A. team into shape for the game with the Coshocton Athletic club's eleven. Last night's practice was fast and snappy and with the weight behind the men, a good showing will be made. A conservative comparison of the two teams would indicate that though the Newark team has not been in any games this year, their supporters look far them to make a good showing.

DISCARD FOOTBALL

New York Preparatory School Puts the Ban on Gridiron Sport—Indorses Roosevelt's Plan.

Syracuse, Oct. 26—The students of St. John's military school in the town of Manlius have decided to taboo football matches at the close of this season, owing to "professionalism, roughness and demoralizing influences" of the game as played at present.

Resolutions to this effect have been adopted by the students and sent to many "prep" schools. They conclude by endorsing President Roosevelt's efforts to cleanse the game.

Colonel William Verback, principal of the school, has sent a letter to President Roosevelt and other prominent men of the country, asking their co-operation in the movement.

FOOTBALL CRAZY

Young Man Tried to Kill Himself Because His Team Lost to Elkins College Eleven.

Cumberland, Oct. 26—Ira Hudkins, center rush of the football team of Broaddus college, Broaddus, W. Va., attempted to commit suicide by jumping off a railroad bridge. He fell many feet, landing on the rocks and suffering internal injuries and a fractured ankle. He is at St. Mary's hospital here in a critical condition.

Hudkins had brooded over the defeat of his team at the hands of the eleven of the Davis and Elkins college, Elkins, W. Va. The gloomy prospects of the team after such a miserable beginning preyed on his mind, as the team was his great pride.

FOOTBALL GOSSIP

"This may be the last Case team ever sent on an Ohio State field," said a Case supporter at Columbus in discussing the game. "The report that Reserve would use Case field for her games in 1906 is significant to me," said he. "The effort to consolidate the schools has been on for years and this is indication that it may be accomplished before another year."

Cherington, perhaps the best halfback the Medics ever had, will be in the all-coach game against the Tigers the Saturday after Thanksgiving. He is now coaching the school team at Pine Grove, O. Stanton, coach of Denison, will be a fullback and Dr. Eckstorm will work at the other half place. The latter is busy working up the coach team, and says it will be a hustling bunch.

Durfee and Prugh have been agreed upon by Denison and Medic managers for the Thanksgiving game. These officials worked in the first game of the year between the teams. The fact that they were so readily selected again is vidence enough that the work was entirely satisfactory.

NEWS OF OHIO

Receiver For Newspapers.

Columbus, O., Oct. 26.—At the request of attorneys who claimed to represent a majority of the stockholders, Judge Dillon appointed William F. Hoffman, cashier of the Commercial National bank, as receiver for the German-American Publishing company. The attorneys represented that three directors of the company were threatening to change the two papers published by it from an independent to a strongly Democratic policy. They claimed that such a change, especially at this time, would destroy the value of the publications. The company publishes the Express and Westbote and The Sontagsgast, and is said to be solvent. Leo Hirsh is editor-in-chief.

Daughters of Confederacy.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 26.—The United Daughters of the Confederacy selected Mrs. John Hosea of this city state president of Ohio, and Mrs. John H Winder of Columbus, honorary state president. Other officers are: Recording secretary, Mrs. Harry L. Connor, Cincinnati; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Margaret Feely Carroll, Cincinnati; treasurer, Mrs. John McLeod, Cincinnati; state historian, Mrs. Lelia Wilson, Cincinnati; custodian, Miss Mary Moore Jones, Cincinnati; registrar, Mrs. L. H. Rose, Columbus. The convention accepted an invitation to meet in Columbus in 1906.

Missing Wives.

Columbus, O., Oct. 26. — Mrs. Ada Eyerman, 25, is missing, and her husband, Frank Eyerman, offers a reward of $50 for her arrest and detention. Since Oct 3 the husband and the Columbus police have been vainly searching for the woman. Leroy Dennis also reports his wife as missing, the woman taking with her a four-year-old son. Dennis can assign no reason for her leaving home. The woman is 25 years old.

Darwin on Trial.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 26.—The trial of Alfred H. Darwin for the murder of Mrs. Anna Gray of Joliet, Ill., began here. Darwin fled from the home of William T. Gray in Joliet with Gray's wife. The elopers, it is charged, went to Akron and then came to Cleveland. Here, it is alleged, the woman repented and was shot and killed by Darwin when she insisted upon going back to her husband.

Fatal Explosion.

Youngstown, O., Oct. 26.—One man was killed and two were badly injured in an explosion at the Struthers furnace, at Struthers. A ladle containing 10 tons of molten metal upset into the water in the pit while metal was being turned into the casting machine, causing the explosion. The end of the casting house was blown out and almost every window in the village was broken.

Vessel Lost.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 26.—Officials of the Cleveland Cliffs Iron company, owners of the steamer Kaliyuga, caught in the gale on Lake Huron Friday, are still without any news regarding its fate. Many well-informed marine men are inclined to think that the vessel is lost with its crew of 17 men. But J. H. Sheadle, manager of the company, has not entirely given up hope.

Excuse Was Valid.

Akron, O., Oct. 26. — R. B. Gibbs, treasurer of the King Bridge company, Cleveland, was arraigned before Judge Kohler on contempt charges for refusing to answer questions put to him before the grand jury in the so-called trust investigation. He was discharged on the ground that his excuse that he might incriminate himself was valid.

Nine Men Injured.

Ironton, O., Oct. 26.—Nine men were injured, all of them seriously, in an explosion at Marting Iron and Steel company's plant. The explosion was caused by gas accumulating under the iron in the cupola. The force of the explosion was terrific and the stack was almost wrecked. The furnace will be closed several weeks.

Condemned Herrick.

Medina, O., Oct. 26—At the Medina Conference of Congregational churches, one of the speakers condemned the Herrick administration on account of its stand on intemperance, and his remarks were received with rousing cheers by the assembly. Rev. H. C. N. Pond and D. L. Leonard of Oberlin conducted the conference in place of Rev. Herbert, who was absent on a lecturing tour. Herbert precipitated a lively and acrimonious debate at last summer's conference by defending Governor Herrick.

Looking For Stickle.

Dayton, Oct. 26—The police departments of Dayton and Newark, Ohio are looking for Lee Stickle, a teamster who represented himself to be a United Brethren missionary and eloped with fifteen-year-old Gladys Lees, of Newark. He brought her here and then deserted her.

400 ARRESTS MADE

TAMMANY'S BIG "SOCIETY" RALLY

New York, Oct. 26.—Tammany will hold its "society rally" of the campaign in Carnegie Hall on Saturday night, under the auspices of the Independent Citizens' Democracy.

Former President Grover Cleveland, ex Justice Alton B. Parker, several boxes full of society women and several hundred canaries in cages will be the chief attractions of this meeting

Former Judge Alton B. Parker, recent Democratic candidate for President, will preside and speak. Former President Grover Cleveland and Mrs. Cleveland will occupy a box.

The principal speech will be by Mayor McClellan. Mrs. McClellan and a party of friends will occupy a box.

Among others who will be present are Mrs. Payne Whitney Mrs. James W. Gerard, Mrs. Herman Oelrichs, Mrs. Francis Burton Harrison, Mrs. Edward M. Grout, Mrs. Charles F. Murphy and Mrs. Clarence Mackay.

The list of speakers includes John G. Carlisle and former Justice D-Cady Herrick, defeated Democratic candidate for Governor.

The decorations will probably be unique for a political meeting. Smilax and flowers will form the main decorations. It has also been arranged to have several hundred canaries in cages hidden in the flowers. By an ingenious arrangement shades will be pulled over the cages during the speechmaking thus quieting the birds

HAIR TELLS CHARACTER.

Color of Hair Said to Indicate a Person's Temperament.

Many people believe that blonde, or light hair denotes affection and dark hair constancy. A person without hair is not devoid of character; far from it. The disposition of the average baldheaded man is to show such solicitude for the welfare of others, that he neglects himself. A germ causes baldness. Prof. Sabouraud, of Paris, France, inoculated a rabbit with Dandruff germs, causing it to become totally bald in five weeks' time To rid the scalp of these dangerous germs it is necessary to apply Newbro's Herpicide

LAST DAYS OF REGISTRATION

The last days of registration are:

FRIDAY, OCT. 27.
SATURDAY, OCT. 28.

The election law requires that all persons who registered last year and have since removed to another precinct, must get transferred to the precinct where they now reside.

All voters who failed to register last year must register.

All persons who have become of age since last year, and all persons who have removed to the city who have resided in the State one year, must register.

As the Ohio law only requires registration every four years, those who registered last year and have not since removed to another precinct, are not required to register this year.

The Lingafelter Cases.

One of the campaign falsehoods being circulated is that Prosecutor J. R. Fitzgibbon had the Lingafelter cases taken to Mt. Vernon to be tried and that he had the county employ an assistant to help in the trial of those causes. As a matter of fact, and the records in the Court House support this, Mr. Fitzgibbon opposed the motion made by the Lingafelters' attorneys to have the cases taken to Mt. Vernon, and filed numerous affidavits against that motion. The court, however, decided that the cases should be taken there and they were so taken, over the protests and objections of Prosecutor Fitzgibbon. The court further appointed counsel to assist in the trial of the case. The statute provides for this, because otherwise the prosecutor of this county would be entirely among strangers in the selection of a jury, and the selection of the jury is often a most important part of a trial.

Again, it has been said that the Circuit court is holding up the decision in the Lingafelter cases at the wish of Prosecutor Fitzgibbon. When it is understood that two of the three judges of the Circuit court are Republicans, it will be readily seen how absurd such a statement is. Prosecutor Fitzgibbon does not know when the decision will be handed down in the Lingafelter cases. He has every reason to believe that these cases will be affirmed, but if they are not there is on thing that the people of Licking county can rest assured of, and that is, that in the event the defendants are granted a new trial they will be compelled to stand trial again, and that in this county, if Mr. Fitzgibbon has his say.

Furthermore, if any of these cases are carried to the Supreme court, the people can rely upon it that Mr. Fitzgibbon will ably and vigorously present the side of the prosecution and press it to a successful termination. The importance of these cases, which the people realize when they give it proper consideration is a momentous reason why Mr. Fitzgibbon should be re-elected as prosecutor. He has successfully fought the legal battle in these cases against powerful odds and the people cannot fail to see the necessity of continuing him in office until the cases are terminated and justice is meted out. It is an old adage not to swap horses while crossing a stream.

PROOF THAT BOSS COX DICTATED NOMINATION OF GOV. HERRICK

"The Dick-Guilbert-Ellis mission to Cincinnati had been wholly successful. The plans devised for securing a working majority in the next state convention, to the end that Herrick shall be nominated, WERE APPROVED BY COX.—OHIO STATE JOURNAL, Nov. 12.

"If nominations are always to be determined by Mr. Cox's attitude, as was Governor Herrick's renomination in 1903, and it seems to be planned in 1905, then there is no longer need of conventions nor discussion of candidates."—MARION STAR (Lieutenant Governor Harding's paper), Nov. 13.

* * * * *

"COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 15.—Governor Herrick and George B. Cox will hold a conference in Cincinnati tonight on the political situation in Ohio, and put the finishing touches on the understanding between them."—ASSOCIATED PRESS.

* * * * *

"Governor Myron T. Herrick and Attorney General Wade Ellis called on George B. Cox, the Hamliton county leader, yesterday. The call on Mr. Cox was purely a social one, and the greeting was cordial.

"It was, 'Hello, George,' and 'How are you, governor?'

"At the close of the conference, both Attorney General Ellis and Governor Herrick left the office of the county leader with smiles on their faces."

"Attorney General Ellis said between smiles of satisfaction: * * * * 'Mr. Cox was one of the first, if not the first, in the state, to favor the nomination of Herrick for his first term. Nothing has happened in the interim which would in the least change his attitude. He has always held the most kindly feeling for Governor Herrick.'

"They have been warm friends of long standing, and it was merely to say, 'How do you do,' and to SHAKE THE HAND OF HIS OLD FRIEND AND ALLY that Governor Herrick visited Mr. Cox at his office."—CINCINNATI COMMERCIAL TRIBUNE (a Staunch Herrick Supporter), Nov. 16.

* * * * *

"George B. Cox, the mainspring of the Republican machine. From a ward leader he became the political boss of Cincinnati and Hamilton county. He is now the acknowledged head of the state organization, and is absolute dictator of the Republican convention that meets today."—COLUMBUS DISPATCH, the Day of the Convention.

* * * * *

"When asked what he had to say regarding the report that George B. Cox, of Cincinnati, insisted on Governor Herrick turning down Dr. Morgan Wood, of Cleveland, as the man to place his name before the Republican state convention, Dr. Wood hesitated a while and said:

"'I don't believe I care to discuss the matter. COX AND THE GOVERNOR KNOW HOW IT CAME ABOUT.'"—COMMERCIAL TRIBUNE, May 20.

Governor Herrick and Chairman-Senator Dick refuse to discuss the Taft speech made at the home of the chairman Saturday evening. They dare not take issue with the secretary of war whose presence in Akron they requested, and they dare not repudiate George B. Cox as the secretary did. Their action since the Taft speech is the best evidence that Cox controls the state administration of Governor Herrick and the Republican organization. Their refusal to talk is an admission of it.

It must be pleasing to the ears of well known Republicans to be referred to as "Pinheads" by George (Cox) Hamilton, the present manager of Licking county Republicans.

Governor Herrick should have issued his Thanksgiving proclamation before Taft went to Akron.

It is well known that State Fire Marshal Hy Davis was appointed by Governor Herrick on the endorsement of George B. Cox. Davis, who is chairman of the Republican committee of Cleveland, where he is devoting to politics the time for which the State pays, said recently in an interview in that city that it was necessary to have a boss in politics and that George B. Cox was a good boss. It would be interesting to hear from Mr. Davis just now as to what he thinks of the Taft speech made at Akron Saturday night, the speech that took Chairman Dick's breath away which was recovered only at the end of the speech when he inquired how soon the secretary would get out of town.

Mr. Bolton's Fitness.

There is no man on either ticket who is better qualified to satisfactorily fill the office which he seeks, than is Frank A. Bolton, Democratic candidate for City Solicitor.

His well known legal attainments have been supplemented by a large experience in the practice of municipal law, having assisted Solicitor Smythe in a number of important cases in which the city was a party.

As president of the Board of Public Safety, Mr. Bolton has acquired a broad grasp of municipal affairs, and will undoubtedly make one of the best solicitors the city has ever had. Under the present management of the Board of Public Safety, the affairs of the police and fire departments have been administered in a manner which always had for its chief end the improvement of the service. Appointments have been made on a strictly non-partisan basis and better discipline than ever before has been maintained.

It would be a mistake not easily rectified to defeat Frank A. Bolton for City Solicitor.

While the Advocate still protests against the continued indulgence in personal abuse of candidates in the local campaign, a little healthy retaliation may not only be provoked, but may become a necessity.

Dr. L. L. Marriott

Dr. L. L. Marriott, Licking County's candidate for Coroner, is one of Licking county's best known and most successful young physicians. Born and brought up in this county, and coming of good old Democratic stock, his father being Mr. G. W. Marriott of Eden township, formerly an Infirmary Director, Dr. Marriott is pre-eminently a man of the people. When a young man he lived on the farm, taught school successfully for a number of years, and afterwards read medicine and graduated with high honors from one of the leading medical colleges of the country. Dr. Marriott has since been engaged in the active and successful practice of medicine and is thoroughly competent and qualified for the important position of Coroner. He is a member of a number of the leading secret societies, and is exceedingly popular, not only in his own party, but in the opposite party. Dr. Marriott will make a first class Coroner in every respect, and the citizens and taxpayers will consult their best interests by seeing that he is elected Coroner by a large majority, as he will be.

COLONIZERS ATTACK ANTI-COX DETECTIVE

Violence is Latest Device of the System to Prevent an Honest Election November 7th.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 26—Violence is the latest device of the system to prevent an honest election.

C. G. Crawford, a colored detective from Cleveland, working in conjunction with the honest elections committee and gathering evidence from colored neighborhoods where negroes are quartered prior to elections, was all but beaten to death by a gang of men in the neighborhood of 323 New street.

He was struck over the head with brass knuckles and his jaw was badly injured by being struck with a blackjack.

A big, well dressed negro led the gang.

He is a well known colonizer, employed by the Cox system.

He shouted: "Your the —— who showed up Gus Powell, and you're the —— who is after Charley Carroll. Yes, Henry Williams, who lives in College Hill, has registered here and. G—d d—n you, he's going to vote here, too."

Crawford was finally knocked down. All joined in kicking him and stamping on his face.

"Stamp him to death!" "Kill him!" "Stamp the life out of him!" they shouted.

"No, boys, don't kill him," shouted the big negro.

"No, kill him," shouted the other. "Only the gang's here."

Crawford then, fearing he was to be murdered, threw his arms back and pretended to be unconscious. 'Now, run, boys," shouted the big negro.

Crawford managed to stagger to Dr. Miles' office at 11 Eighth street, his wounds were sewed up and the blood and dirt cleansed from his face.

The worst wound was just over his nose, where he had been kicked.

Crawford is in bad shape, but it is not thought he will die.

Last Hope Vanished.

When leading physicians said that W. M. Smithart, of Pekin, Ia., had incurable consumption, his last hope vanished; but Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds kept him out of his grave. Strictly scientific cure for Coughs, Sore Throats or Colds; sure preventive of Pneumonia. Guaranteed 50c and $1.00 bottles at Hall's Drug Store. Trial bottles free.

National Bank Examiner-Receiver of the Enterprise National Makes a Statement.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 26. — National Bank Examiner John B. Cunningham, receiver of the Enterprise National bank, said that all moneys deposited in the bank on the day it closed were set aside and will be returned to depositors on demand. In this connection some pathetic stories are coming to light of widows and other small depositors who gave notice two weeks ago of intention to withdraw certain amounts for needed expenditures, and now that the bank is closed are unable to get their money. Receiver Cunningham has this matter under consideration.

Will Likely be Made by Fleet—Demands for Financial Reform in Macedonia.

Odessa, Oct. 26.—The whole of the Black sea fleet, with the exception of the battleship Pateleimon, formerly the Kniaz Potemkine, has left Sebastopol under the command of Vice Admirals Dirileff and Chouknin. It is surmised that possibly the government is preparing for a naval demonstration in the event of the powers deciding that such a step is necessary in connection with their demands for the financial reform of Macedonia.

VON KANEL COMMITS SUICIDE ON PORCH OF LAWYER H. J. CRAWFORD.

Young Man Was Attentive to Sister of Mrs. Crawford—Girl Would Not See Him.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 26. — Leon Von Kanel, 25, Delaware, O., shot himself in the mouth while sitting on the porch of the home of Attorney H. J. Crawford and died while on the way to a hospital. Von Kanel was attentive to Miss Branderbury, sister to Mrs. Crawford. He had called at the house and asked for Miss Branderbury. The maid told him she was not in and closed the door. Von Kanel then took a seat in a chair on the porch and shot himself. He has been stopping at the Hollenden hotel since Oct. 16, registering from Cincinnati. Von Kanel had called at the Crawford home several times during the last few days to see Miss Brandenbury. It is thought he was a traveling salesman for a Cincinnati jewelry house.

GRANVILLE IS FORGING AHEAD

DURING PAST YEAR THIRTY NEW DWELLINGS HAVE BEEN CONSTRUCTED.

In Educational Matters Granville is the Possessor of Most Valuable Assets.

Granville, O., Oct. 26—Cities and towns like individuals, have their characteristics, their individuality. Now, were the writer asked what two characteristics of the citizens of Granville most impressed him, he would say in large, legible letters, "Vim." Then he would write immediately underneath the words, "Good Fellowship." There you have it.

Granville is not dead. She is not even asleep, but awake, very much awake; for in walking about the streets of the old town, an Advocate man saw a large number of new dwelling houses and other structures building, in all stages of construction. Moreover he heard at the same time the click of the hammer, the rasp of the saw, and the ubiquitous shout for "more mortar, more mortar." During the past year over thirty new dwelling houses have been built in Granville. Many of these structures are of the most substantial character, reflecting great credit on the genius and thrift of the citizens. In addition to the large number of new dwellings that have been erected, scores of men have been engaged in the work of constructing the new Shepardson college dormitory, gymnasium and other college buildings. The genius of enterprise and inspiration of concerted action, the spirit of get-there-tiveness in this clean-cut up-to-date town, pervade the whole community, charging with a zeal the whole atmosphere, until it throbs and pulsates like the ebb and flow of the ocean's tides, insomuch that strangers coming within her gates themselves feel the thrill of a newness of life, causing them to feel glad that they are alive, and in beautiful Granville. One can stand on some high vantage ground and gaze far down magnificent Broadway, and away beyond where lovely valleys are steeped in softest light, and where beautiful hills glow with richest colors. To the citizen who is nature's true lover, this alone, is joy.

In educational matters Granville is the possessor of most valuable assets. Not only is she equipped with a most efficient school system, but there is within her limits an institution whose fair fame and potential influence has swept the continent, commanding the homage of the people, and in most generous measure, contributing to the betterment of humanity. I mean of course, Denison university.

The outlook for next season, in the building line, is exceedingly bright, and the indications are that there will be more buildings erected than there were this year. Barney Science Hall must, according to the contract, be finished by next September, and quite a number of lots have recently been purchased by parties who expect to build as soon as the season opens in the spring. Altogether the outlook for Granville is very encouraging.

OHIO INSURANCE

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 26—The Ohio Life Policy Holders' Association yesterday sent out a letter to the law firm of Musser, Kohler & Mottinger, of Akron, Ohio, in reply to inquiries made in reference to insurance in Ohio. Many of these letters have been published, and in some quarters it was believed that the purpose of the movement was a campaign move and an attack on John M. Pattison, the Democratic nominee. The letter sent out yesterday defines exactly the position of the association, following a long and thorough investigation of insurance companies by the commissioner of the association.

The letter made public in reference to the insurance company of which Candidate Pattison is the head, says:

"Our association does not desire to be considered as taking any part in the present political campaign in Ohio, and we are trying to avoid, as far as possible, any appearance of such intention. The insurance campaign is on in all the states of the Union, but no Ohio insurance company is on trial. The Democratic candidate for governor is president of the leading life insurance company of the state. He has not misapplied one penny of the funds of his company. The assets of his company are worth more than twice the liabilities, and are all so well secured that the company can not lose one dollar of its investments.

"We favor the retention of premium tax on foreign companies. Mr. Pattison does not; and I believe that is the only material point of difference between us."

Cheated Death.

Kidney trouble often ends fatally, but by choosing the right medicine, E. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Iowa, cheated death. He says: "Two years ago I had Kidney Trouble, which caused me great pain, suffering and anxiety, but I took Electric Bitters, which effected a complete cure. I have also found them of great benefit in general debility and nerve trouble, and keep them constantly on hand, since, as I find they have no equal." Hall, the druggist, guarantees them at 50c.

STRANGE MALADY CAUSED DEATH

SECOND SON OF REV. AND MRS. DENNING IS BURIED AT PATASKALA.

Mother Believes That Slow but Subtle Poison Was Given Her Boys by Native Indian.

Pataskala, O., Oct. 26—The remains of Afton Denning arrived today from Lake Bluff, near Chicago, where he died the first of this week. Burial took place at Pataskala.

Afton was 13 years of age and had been a sufferer from a peculiar disease since the death of his little brother Gilbert, which occurred here last March, and who died from the same strange malady. American doctors could not satisfactorily diagnose the disease which was a complete mystery to them.

It will be remembered that Rev. and Mrs. Denning were missionaries to India, where little Gilbert was taken ill, the mother returning to America with the boys in hopes of saving the little fellow's life. Instead both sons have been taken and the parents are childless.

Mrs. Denning, while in Pataskala a short time ago, informed a friend that it was her belief that some slow, but subtle poison has been administered to the boys by some native Indian in a spirit of revenge for some fancied wrong. Mr. Denning, too, has been very ill of late.

Mr. Holler's Statement.

(Communicated.)

I desire to contradict the statement made in the American-Tribune on Tuesday, October 23d, 1905, regarding the assault made on three strike breakers in my place of business. In the first place these three men came into my saloon voluntarily, accompanied by Mr. Collins and Mr. Felix, and after taking several rounds of drinks they started out through the back door presumably to get on a car for Columbus. I know nothing of whatever transpired afterward, and can assure the public that my place of business is at all times conducted in an orderly manner.

MODERN WOODMEN

Initiated Four Candidates and Enjoyed Splendid Musical Entertainment Wednesday Evening.

The regular meeting of Cedar Camp No. 4727, Modern Woodmen of America, on Wednesday night proved to be one of unusual interest, owing to the fine literary entertainment that had been prepared for the pleasure of the membrs of th camp through the committee, of which Prof. Amos Brice was chairman.

The camp was opened in due form and a class of four candidates were obligated, after which the camp was closed and the visitors and those taking part in the musical entertainment were admitted.

Following is the excellent program that was given and thoroughly enjoyed by all:

Piano Solo—Prof. Uhl.

Vocal Solo—"Love is Meant to Make Us Glad," Miss Baldwin.

Instrumental Duet—"Longing for Home," Piano, Mrs. A. H. Pierson; violin cello, Rev. Mr. Berger.

Vocal Solo—"The Gay Huzzar," Prof. Nusbaum.

Violin cello solo—"Mendelssohn's Spring Song." Rev. Mr. Berger.

Vocal solo—"Naughty Little Clock," Mrs. C. W. Miller.

Quartet—"My Old Kentucky Home," Messrs. James Richtor, John Parkinson, Mr. Kumler and Willie Wilson.

The vocal numbers of the program were all encored and Mrs. A. H. Pierson accompanied the vocal solos with great taste and perfect expression.

This closed the musical part of the program, the numbers of which were of a high order of excellence and were thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated by all.

The Woodmen testified their appreciation of the entertainment by giving Prof. Amos Brice and the musicians who so kindly entertained the members of the camp, the Woodmen's honors.

The subsequent committees will have to work hard to present as fine a program as was given on Wednesday night.

Major Ellis, a prominent Woodman of Rock Island, Ill., who was here in regard to putting on one of his great Woodmen plays in connection with Cedar camp, then rendered two splendid recitations to the delight of the members of the camp and the visitors. One was "Over the Hills From the Poor House," and the other was "Life, a Game of Cards." Both were certainly gems of elocutionary art.

Report of Resolutions Committee.

Zanesville, O., Oct. 26.—The newspaper women and club women of Ohio crowded a more varied assortment of incidents into one day's activity in Zanesville than this staid old town has witnessed for some time. Stellar events came so fast and so unexpectedly that it was hard to keep track of them. The women dabbled in politics, took a crack at Grover Cleveland, criticised the press of the state for not giving them the consideration due them, elected officers, took trolley rides over the city, and are in the evening engaged in the pleasures of one of the swellest receptions that society here has witnessed for many seasons. At the final session of the Newspaper Women' Association the following resolution was adopted with a whirl:

"Resolved, That we as an association protest against political bossism in Ohio, and that this association deplores and condemns the prevalence of graft in high places, as revealed by the present insurance investigation."

After this the following officers were elected for the ensuing year and the convention adjourned: Honorary President, Miss Delia E. Amos; President, Mrs. Josephine Woodward, Cincinnati; vice president, Mrs. Mary Proctor Wilson, Lebanon; secretary, Mrs. Penelope Smythe, Columbus; assistant to secretary, Miss Connor, Columbus; treasurer, Miss Nan Cannon; executive committee, Grace Wilson, Toledo; Mrs. C. F. McLean, Cincinnati; Miss Josepha Thrall, Findlay.

The selection of Mrs. Woodward of Cincinnati, for president was a surprise. It had all been made up to confer this honor upon Miss Clara Louise Graham of Cleveland, but she absolutely declined to accept. Miss Graham is prominent in the councils of the Ohio Federation of Women's clubs, also in session here, and she declined to act because of the extra work that she would have to assume.

The Ohio Federation of Women's clubs held its first session Wednesday afternoon. The delegates, of which more than 300 were present, were welcomed by Mrs. M. M. Granger, and Mrs. William Murdock of Akron responded for the visitors. Mrs. E. L. Buchwalter of Springfield, delivered her annual address. One very prominent feature of Mrs. Buchwalter's address was her criticism of the Girls' Industrial Home at Delaware and an unfavorable comparison of the institution with the Ohio Industrial School for Boys. She advocated that members of the federation urge upon the legislators of Ohio the necessity of improvements in the Girls' Home.

Mrs. Buchwalter took a rap at the press of the state in declaring that too much space is given to "the dress of the delegates and the number of trunks each one has."

Reports of officers were considered, and just prior to adjournment not a little amusement was injected into the proceedings by a Cincinnati woman, Mrs. R. G. Devore, who discussed the topic "What is the Duty of the Individual Club to the Federation?" in which Mrs. Devore took exceptions to some recent statements of ex-President Cleveland. She said:

"I have long been a political admirer of him who is being so extensively scolded and so much talked about, and have considered him one of the wise men of the age. However, his lapse into ignorance may be the exception to the rule, but in his heart of hearts he knows more about Jefferson Democracy than he does about women's clubs."

Mrs. Devore followed this up with a statement of her belief that Mr. Cleveland would to advantage quit reading certain home journals and devote more time to serious perusal of those devoted to the interests of the clubs. This caused intense laughter and applause.

There is an erroneous impression about the officers for the Ohio Federation of Women's clubs for the ensuing year. There is to be no election at this year's convention, all the officers holding over for another year.

Two changes made in the afternoon, however, were caused by vacancies. Because of the resignation of Miss Katherine Peachey of Cincinnati, as recording secretary, Miss Clara Louise Graham of Cleveland, was appointed. Mrs. Lena Kline Reed of Portsmouth, was also appointed vice president of the Southeast District of Ohio, vice Mrs George Hopper.

The committee on resolutions was appointed consisting of Mrs. Samuel B. Sneath of Tiffin; Mrs. James A. Roberts of Cincinnati, and Mrs. Lafayette Hunter of Warren. The holdover officers of the Federation are:

President, Mrs. Edward L. Buchwalter, Springfield; vice president, Mrs. William Murdock, Akron; district vice presidents, Northeast district, Mrs. Howard Huckins, Oberlin; Northwest district, Mrs. Henry B. Harris, Defiance; Southwest district, Mrs. R. J. Devore, Glendale; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Joseph B. Cartmell, Springfield; treasurer, Mrs. Edwin F. Moulton Hall, Warren; auditor, Mrs. Henry E. Beebe, Sidney; Federation secretary, Mrs. Charles Insco Williams, Davton.

Last night the 300 visiting delegates and as many more clubwomen of Zanesville attended a reception at the First Presbyterian church, which presented a scene of general splendor and a wealth of gowns never before seen in this city.

A UNIQUE RECORD.

Not Another Like It in Our Broad Republic.

To give positive home testimony in every locality is of itself unanswerable proof of merit; but when we add to this the continued endorsement from people who testified years ago no evidence can be stronger. A Newark citizen gratefully acknowledges the good received from Doan's Kidney Pills and when time has tested the cure we find the same hearty endorsement, with added enthusiasm and continued praise. Cases of this kind are plentiful in the work of Doan's Kidney Pills, and such a record is unique in the annuals of medicine.

E. Frank Edwards, plasterer, of 152 Ash St., Newark, O., says: "I had backache and had it bad. For several years I was suffering from sharp shooting pains in the region of the kidneys and a dull aching and weakness in the back which was becoming very serious. I tried remedy after remedy without finding relief and I nearly lost hope when I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, obtained at Crayton's drug store. It was a gratifying surprise to find after a few doses of this remedy the pain seemed somewhat abated and I continued the treatment for some little time, using several boxes. I was thoroughly cured. I gave a testimonial at that time recommending Doan's Kidney Pills to others. It is now eight years since I made that statement and I am glad to be able to say that the cure was permanent."

Washington, Oct. 26—Official information comes to the state department from Nicaragua that the so-called Leon court has confirmed the decision of the lower court in the case of the American citizen, Albers, and has fixed his sentence at 32 months' imprisonment. Albers, it is expected, will take an immediate appeal to the supreme court at Managua. The state department has instructed Mr. Merry, the American minister to Nicaragua, to call the secretary of legation, J. G. Baiz, to Managua, to observe the progress of the case so as to be in a position to inform the department regarding the treatment the Albers case receives.

COTTON BULLETIN

Total of Nearly Five Million Bales of Cotton Ginned in United States Up to October 18.

Washington, Oct. 26.—A total of 4,940,728 bales of cotton ginned in the United States up to Oct. 18 is the statement announced in a bulletin issued by the census bureau. In this calculation round bales are counted as half bales, and the figures given in the bulletin are based on reports made by the bureau's special agents in the field. No estimate is made of the total crop for the year, but figures are given out concerning crops of former years.

In order to catch crows, which do so much damage to the growing crops, Italian farmers have taken to placing small pieces of meat in conical-shaped paper bags, and smearing the inside of these bags with glue. When the bird puts his head in and finds himself blindfolded he flies upward to an immense height, but falls near his starting place.

A hundred years ago a Spaniard planted some potatoes in Southern California, but before he could dig his crop a band of Indians drove him out of the section. A few days ago some excavators on the site of the potato patch dug up a fine crop of agate stones, the potatoes having petrified in that material.

BIG RAILROAD DEAL FINISHED

VANDERBILTS HAVE BOUGHT LITTLE KANAWHA SYNDICATE LANDS

And Railroads Which are in Litigation Started by John S. Jones of Granville.

The following message from Cincinnati tells of a big deal that has just gone through. This is of special interest here and in Granville because the litigation referred to was started by J. S. Jones the Chicago-Granville capitalist.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 26.—The Pittsburg and Lake Erie Railroad company, it is published here, has purchased the Little Kanawha syndicate coal lands and railroads which are in litigation in the United States circuit court of appeals in Cincinnati. The sale was made by Joseph Ramsey, Jr., former president of the Wabash system. Mr. Ramsey and George Gould did not differ on this proposition. The Pittsburg and Lake Erie is a Vanderbilt line. It will come into the new coal field through Pittsburg. The several railroad lines which are integral parts of the Little Kanawha will be used by the Vanderbilts to make a new line through Virginia to the Atlantic seaboard. This is one of the greatest railroad deals of recent times.

SISTER'S HEAD

Blown off by Girl Who Raised the Gun, Saying, "I'm Going to Shoot.'

Cannelton, Ind., Oct. 26—"I am going to shoot you," said Lulu Fishback, aged 13, to her sister Maggie, aged 11, at Cannelton, Ind.; last night, as she pointed a loaded gun at her. The gun was discharged and the top of Maggie's head was blown off, death resulting instantly. The mother of the girls, who witnessed the sad tragedy, fell in a faint on the floor, and it was several hours before she was restored to consciousness. The girl slayer when she realized what she had done, tried to leap into the river and end her life, so great was her remorse.

The father of the girls is in jail, serving a sentence, and he was permitted to go and see his dead daughter.

PRESIDENT

Laments the Law's Delays and Tricks of Lawyers in Speech at Little Rock, Ark.

Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 26—President Roosevelt spoke here last night, delivering a new ideal for the legal profession in which be virtually said that our legal and judicial practices are antiquated. Striking utterances in the speech follow:

"Our legal practices have become perverted.

"The offending individual has nearly all the protection; the state hardly any.

"We need methods to expedite punishment.

"The right to appeal is abused.

"It is a matter of the utmost difficulty to punish men rich or influential enough to command really good legal talent.

"I speak in the light of experience.

"I have endeavored to carry out the Scriptural injunction."

The President also denounced lynching, and was cheered in Arkansas.

B. & O. FAST TRAIN WRECKED AT DEPOT

HAD JUST SLOWED DOWN AFTER RUNNING SIXTY MILES AN HOUR.

Nobody Hurt But Railway Men Consider It a Very Narrow Escape—Newark Crew in Charge.

B. & O. passenger train No. 103, due to leave Newark at 1:35 p. m., had a narrow escape from a serious wreck while nearing the Union Station in Columbus Wednesday afternoon.

The train was in charge of Conductor Williams and Engineer Frank Howard. A defective flange on the postal car caused the wheel to climb the rail, and the rear trucks were jerked out from under the car, which was dragged along the ties for some distance. The tender was also derailed. No one was hurt, but the train was delayed for a short time.

It was fortunate that the accident happened after the train's speed had been slowed down for the Union Station. This train attains a speed of 65 miles an hour part of the way between Newark and Columbus.

After selling all kinds of remedies for dyspepsia and indigestion we can truthfully say that we never knew anything to give such universal satisfaction as Pepsikola Tablets. The Wiles-Erman Drug Co. has been recommending this grand dyspepsia remedy for nearly two years now, and from actual experience knows there is no other remedy so sure to relieve sour stomach, bad taste in the mouth, coated tongue, palpitation, sleeplessness, wind belching, and other distressing symptoms of indigestion. And Pepsikola Tablets must cure you or there is nothing to pay. They will renew your energy, steady your nerves, regulate the action of your heart, improve your appetite, putu new life in your stomach, and will do more to tone up and improve your general health than anything you ever heard of. t-th-tf

AT MEMPHIS

President Made a Short Address. Off to New Orleans.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 26.—President Roosevelt and his party stopped here 20 minutes. The president's itinerary did not include a stop here longer than was necessary to switch his car to the Illinois Central tracks, the original program being that he would proceed at once to New Orleans. These plans were somewhat modified when a large crowd of citizens appeared at the Calhoun street depot and called upon him for a speech. The president acknowledged the greetings and proceeded to a hastily improvised stand, from which he made a short address dwelling upon what constitutes good citizenship.

Denounced Lynching.

Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 26.—President Roosevelt spent seven crowded hours in and around Little Rock, and his journey from Fort Logan H. Roots, on Big Rock, on the north side of the Arkansas river, to the City park in Little Rock, was marked by an enthusiastic demonstration of welcome on the part of the thousands of people appearing on the streets for the occasion. While in Little Rock the president delivered two speeches, in one of which he denounced lynching, and in doing so elicited hearty applause.

NEXT SPRING

Second Peace Conference Will Be Held at The Hague.

Rome, Oct. 26.—The Italian government expects to receive in the near future the program of subjects to be discussed by the second peace conference at The Hague called by the emperor of Russia. It is thought that the conference will meet next spring and that Russia will be represented by a delegation headed by M. Nelidoff, Russian ambassador at Paris, and M. De Martens, former professor of international law at the University of St. Petersburg. It is likely that the vatican will be represented.

Take Courage!

If you are naturally not as strong as your more fortunate sisters, and for this reason experience dread rather than joy at the prospect of becoming a mother, take courage and assurance from this fact: Mother's Friend is meant for you, and by its use you may pass through that glorious martyrdom which is yours by divine right with no more discomfort than that experienced by those who by nature are possibly more adapted for the role of motherhood.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

is a liniment of proven merit, and its great worth can be no better attested to than by the countless strong and healthy children who through its kindly offices have entered this world unhandicapped by any deformity or weakness. It is a liniment which by external application acts upon the abdominal muscles and permits of a painless parturition.

HEBRON SCHOOL NOTES

Harry Hutzell a C-grammar boy, had the misfortune to sprain his ankle very badly one day last week while at play. He is now on crutches.

A. J. Sellars of the class of '05, is in attendance now, doing some post graduate work. Any others desiring to do some review work will find a number of classes adapted to their needs.

Miss Verna Warfle made a hurryup trip to the dentist at Kirkersville one evening last week and there parted company with a troublesome tooth.

Louise Taylor, accompanied her parents to Mansfield for a short visit.

It looks to a casual observer as though there were a few cases around town that needed the attention of the truant officer.

The fond mother who so unceremoniously invaded the school domains of one of the grade teachers the other morning and proceeded in no uncertain terms to give vent to her feelings, regarding her very much abused young hopeful, would do well to read rule 7, page 5, of the school manual.

The very crowded condition of our schools shows the increase of population in our town, also the urgent need of more rooms and teachers. There are 52 pupils enrolled in the primary room just now. While the other grades range from 35 to 40.

The superintendent has introduced a new line of march and twice daily you can hear the beat of the drum as they march in and out of the rooms.

Frightful Suffering Relieved.

Suffering frightfully from the virulent poisons of undigested food, C. G. Grayson, of Lula, Miss., took Dr. King's New Life Pills, "with the result," he writes, "that I was cured." All stomach and bowel disorders give way to their tonic, laxative properties. 25c at Hall's drug store, guaranteed.

Oppose Federal Supervision.

Hartford, Conn., Oct. 26.—After listening to a report submitted by a committee composed of presidents of Hartford insurance companies, the Connecticut state board of trade passed resolutions opposing the idea of federal supervision of insurance. The committee report was adopted unanimously.

Mail Communication Cut Off.

Washington, Oct. 26.—The state department received a cable from Mr. Eddy, the American charge d'affaires at St. Petersburg, stating that owing to the railway strike mail communication was cut off from St. Petersburg.

16 Doctors pronounced case of Eczema incurable, but D. D. D. Prescription cured it quickly.

If you doubt it, read this letter from a man whose integrity no one can question, who is the leading furrier of Toledo, O.

Toledo, O., March 25, 1904.

D. D. D., Chicago, Ill.

Gentlemen: I have long been desirous of writing you a letter of gratitude for the happy results obtained from your wonderful remedy, D. D. D., and I am doing so now with a deep feeling of appreciation, hoping that it may bring the same happiness and relief to other sufferers that it brought to me.

Six years of intense suffering from a severe case of eczema, to be given up as incurable by sixteen doctors, several of whom were specialists of skin diseases, and then to have tried every known medicine for my ailment without effect and finally to procure absolute relief and a permanent cure from a new remedy, is an experience that justifies my action in making it known to the public; and I feel that it is my duty to give it as much publicity as possible, so that other sufferers may be relieved. My sympathy goes out to those who have to go through what I did. It was almost unendurable, and not only was it a most painful disease, but its appearance was horrible on my face, and for years I went from home to the store and back again, going to no place of amusement or visiting any friends, simply going through a daily ordeal that I could scarcely endure. Worse than that, I was restricted to eating certain things, and any change from that would greatly increase the pain. My hands and finger nails were unsightly, and I wore gloves all the time. My eyes were swollen most of the time so that I could barely see, and my ears and face had all the resemblance of a raw piece of steak.

All this embarrassment and pain and misery have entirely left me. I can now call on my friends, go any place I desire and my business is receiving the attention that it should. When specialists will pronounce you beyond cure, and you are advised to seek another place of residence, and leave your established and profitable business, is it no wonder then that I should write you this letter?

Thanking you again, and wishing your great remedy continued success, believe me, I am your grateful friend,

ROBERT SUSSMAN.

AMUSEMENTS

Don't miss the "Genius and the Model" at the Auditorium tonight. Secure your seats at the box office now.

SCHOOL FOR HUSBANDS.

As the opening attraction at Powers' theatre, Chicago, where it filled the house for two weeks, "The School for Husbands" more than fulfilled what was predicted of it, once it started en tour. The fact that it captured the fancy of New York audiences, while it was at Wallack's theatre, left little doubt that it would amuse in the west as it did in the east. As a matter of fact the piece and the players are in all respects better than last season. Miss Fischer has a surer and defter touch in her interpretation of the leading role, while Mr. Kilgour and the remainder of the company are so much the more able to keep the play "going," than last season, by reason of the additional study during the long summer rest.

BIG HEARTED JIM.

A unique actor, one of the best that ever played a part, has a prominent part in Big Hearted Jim, the new comedy melodrama which George Klimt and his able company are presenting this season. The horse was chosen for his fine intelligence, it being necessary for him to respond at once at important moments as the faithful aid of the big hearted sheriff, Jim Saxon. Auditorium, matinee and night, November 1.

THEATRICAL NOTES.

Blanche Walsh and Viola Allen, two of the most prosperous stars now in evidence, made their first noteworthy Broadway triumphs in opposite parts in Bronson Howard's "Aristocracy." It may be added that although this drama gave them their respective starts, it was practically the last output of value from the pen of the author of "The Banker's Daughter." Blanche Walsh comes to the Auditorium soon in Clyde Fitch's great success, "The Woman in the Case."

When Paul Gilmore comes to the city a short time hence he will be seen as the adventure loving hero in "Captain Debonnaire," a play redolent of early American atmosphere and as full of action, excitement and love interest as was The Three Musketteers, the play in which this young star proved beyond a doubt that he is the logical successor of Alexander Salvini in the romantic drama.

The "Sadie Girls" are coming to town. Famous as the first of the so-called show girls, the pioneer wearers of long skirts in musical comedy, and really the only members of a chorus ever to disport themselves before the foot lights in Worth gowns. This wondrous array of feminine loveliness is an important feature of "The Little Duchess," with Elsie Janis in the leading role.

LAST DAYS OF REGISTRATION

The last days of registration are:

FRIDAY, OCT. 27.
SATURDAY, OCT. 28.

The election law requires that all persons who registered last year and have since removed to another precinct, must get transferred to the precinct where they now reside.

All voters who failed to register last year must register.

All persons who have become of age since last year, and all persons who have removed to the city who have resided in the State one year, must register.

As the Ohio law only requires registration every four years, those who registered last year and have not since removed to another precinct, are not required to register this year.

FIVE HUNDRED TOOK THE PLEDGE

AT CLOSE OF FR. M'EACHEN'S ELOQUENT SERMON ON TEMPERANCE.

Outline of Address Given by Brilliant Young Priest at St. Francis de Sales Church.

At the end of the Rev. Roderick A. MacEachen's splendid temperance discourse at St. Francis de Sales church Tuesday evening, fully 500 men and women stood up and repeated after the speaker the words of the total abstinence pledge for one year.

Rev McEachen said in part:

"The theme of my discourse tonight is temperance. Hundreds of self-sacrificing men and women have left their homes and firesides and gone forth fearlessly to wage war against intemperance. Men go forth forgetful of wives and families and think to renovate the earth by freeing it from alcohol. Women go forth resorting sometimes to hatchets, to preach temperance, whilst their own homes remain motherless and their sons and daughters are left to roam with no warning voice to guide them from the path of sin.

"With burning words they condemn the saloonkeeper to the hottest regions of hell. They place the saloon, its proprietor and the devil on one side whilst on the opposite they range God, the church and themselves.

"The thief, the murderer and the adulterer all look alike with pity and scorn on the wretched mortal who has committed the sin of drunkenness.

"In other words the work of temperance has been taken up by a countless band of pharasaical fools and fanatics, who have made it a despised cause to the generality of men.

"When I speak to you of temperance, I do not tell you that drunkards and saloonkeepers will be thrust into hell, while members of large corporations who preach temperance, teach Sunday school and form unlawful trusts will be carried to Heaven in a golden chariot. Indeed, I would almost believe that some temperance cranks will have delirium tremens in hell for all eternity. I have never yet in all the teachings of Christ found a law which shuts a saloonkeeper out of heaven.

"Temperance is an enobling virtue, because it appeals to the higher nature of man. As we understand it, it is abstinence from intoxicating drinks. Do not think that there is sin in every glass of rum, but there is ruin, awful ruin in the habits which the allurements to drink tend to cultivate.

"Our young men must be sober, and there is but one solitary means of procuring this end; it is total abstinence.

"Though many who use alcoholic drinks with moderation, lead good Christian lives, yet he who takes but a single drink a year is not certain that he will escape a drunkard's death."

Rev. McEashen then exhorted those who had been lured away by drink as well as those who had never tasted it, to pledge themselves to the cause of total abstinence.

SIX BODIES ARE TAKEN FROM RUINS

REFORMS IN RUSSIA

London, Oct. 26.—The correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph at St. Petersburg wires today that he is authoritatively informed that the Czar has decided to grant to Russia a constitution similar to that of Germany. The correspondent adds that at the meeing of the council of ministers held yesterday it was decided to satisfy the economic demands made by the people, but refuses the political reforms asked except the freedom of the press which will be granted.
